Grab your travel journal and get ready for a whirlwind trip around the world in a week! We're going to spend the week playing games, singing songs, listening to folktales (and re-writing some!), learning useful phrases in various languages, and trying our hands at different art activities from around the world. Our trip will start in Australia and New Zealand. We'll then make stops in Asia, Africa, and Europe. Our last stop before heading home for the weekend will be Latin America. Ready to go?!?
