Peggy Woody: Arkansas Municipal Clerk of the Year

Siloam Springs City Clerk/Treasurer Peggy Woody is the Arkansas Municipal Clerk of the Year for 2011.

The yearly award recognizes a member of the Arkansas City Clerks, Recorders, Treasurers Association (ACCRTA) who has made significant contributions to the objectives of the municipal clerks' profession and to the improvement of municipal government in Arkansas and in the clerk's own community.

City Administrator David Cameron said the award was well deserved.

"Peggy is a big part of our team at the city," Cameron said. "She is a great resource. We turn to her often for information and help. She has a great memory of city history."

Woody also recently received a Jack R. Rhodes, Sr. Distinguished Service Award in honor of her 25 years of service to the City of Siloam Springs. She began her employment with the city in 1986 in the District Court Office, and became the Court Clerk in 1988. Woody was appointed as City Clerk in 1990.

"I really enjoy serving the community and helping city staff," Woody said. When she is not working, Woody enjoys spending time with her family. She and her husband Tim, a veterinarian, have been married for 45 years and have four children and eight grandchildren.
